MUDDY AT WORTH.

The rain that came down in a fine drizzle all afternoon yesterday at Chicago Ridge rendered the Worth track a mass of slush, and mudlarks held supreme sway in all the six races. As is usual on such days the victors all scored by big margins and consequently the sport was attended by little excitement.

The principal attraction on the program was the Illinois Handicap for three-year-olds and upward at one and one-eighth miles, with $1,000 added. To the surprise of many the winner proved to be Rolling Boer, which has been performing poorly of late. The Lady, his stable companion, closely pursued by Charley O'Brien, showed the way for the first seven furlongs, where Rolling Boer moved up fast and assumed the lead. He was so rank while coming down the last eighth that Coburn could hardly pull him up, winning by three lengths from The Lady, she beating Strangest two for second place. The Lady was pretty well out by the time the last eighth post had been reached. Strangest was so tired a furlong out that he swerved into the inside rail. Charley O'Brien ran well for a mile and then fell away rapidly. He has possibly had too much of it of late. Barrack's race was a joke. He floundered about in the going badly and was beaten off from start to finish.

The second race, a dash of six furlongs, seemed to be a gift for Burnie Bunton, as the only one that appeared to have a remote chance with her was Gonfalon. The latter, however, cannot extend himself with freedom in muddy going and therefore fell an easy prey to Burnie Bunton's speed. She shot to the lead at flag fall and simply ran away from Gonfalon, winning in a canter by eight lengths, while he beat Empress of Beauty three for second place.

That good filly Merriment again proved her worth by taking a fair field of two-year-olds into camp in the third race, a dash of five and a half furlongs. She was supposed to have a merry competitor in Evening Star, but the latter fell while at the post, throwing jockey Dominick. The accident must have injured her in some way as she finished beaten off in going made to her order, coming in a dismal last. Julia Junkin flashed in front for a short spell, when Merriment was called upon, and the way she ran away from her field was a caution. She won with the greatest of ease by three lengths from Autumn Leaves, which finished about the same distance in front of Inspector Shea. Autumn Leaves finished strongly, but had no chance to beat the winner. Inspector Shea tired rapidly in the run in, just lasting long enough to get third money from Lucien Appleby, which would have beaten him out in a stride or two. Lucien Appleby was badly outrun in the first part of the race, but was moving fast in the last sixteenth. Julia Junkin is probably not enamored of the mud, as she quit badly soon after the first half had been run. Miracle II., known to be partial to muddy tracks, ran an indifferent race. Legal Maxim showed well for a part of the way. He does not call for much notice.

Frelinghuysen, a rank outsider, took the day's opener, a dash of six furlongs, without much trouble. He was backed by a wise few on the good showing made several days ago with 122 pounds up and on account of his known liking for soft footing. Harry Herendeen led by a slight margin up to the last quarter where he was beaten and Frelinghuysen assumed command. The latter kept gradually improving his advantage while coming down the last eighth finally winning easily by a length from C. B. Campbell, which beat Segurana two for second place. C. B. Campbell closed up with a rush in the last sixteenth but tired badly in the closing strides. Segurana showed a big improvement over her last effort in the same going. She is on edge now and should be a hard mare to beat hereafter in muddy going.

Valdez, long overdue, liquidated his feed bill by taking the fifth race, a dash of one and one sixteenth miles in a big romp. First Frank Ireland and then Miss Liza took a turn at the ushering game, but along about the first half Valdez was called upon and quicker than can be told he opened a gap on his field that he gradually increased until by the time he reached the last eighth post he was eight lengths in the lead. From here to the wire he was eased up winning by three lengths from Fantasy, which beat Linden Ella six for second place. Fantasy was easily the best of the others. Whatever chance Tammany Chief had in the race was spoiled by Hope's bungling ride. He had him in and out over all the track and finally got him jammed in against the inside rail at the last eighth post. Frank Ireland and Miss Liza ran well for six furlongs.

The last race of the day went to Stella Perkins, which took to the going like a duck to water. She went to the fore at the barrier's rise and the result was never afterward in doubt. She finally won eased up by two lengths from Step Onward, she beating Herodes seven for second place. Step Onward finished strongly, but had no chance to beat the winner. There was little contention back of the first three. Lady Like, backed for a "good thing," showed no great speed to speak of and was hopelessly beaten off at the end.

R. Steele was fined $25 and suspended for a week for "misbehavior," while at the post in the first race.

NO CLASH WITH LATONIA.

A week ago it was believed that racing would be resumed at Newport yesterday, but the opening day was again postponed. Concerning the matter yesterday's Cincinnati Commercial Tribune said:

"From present indications it looks as if there will be no clash between Newport and Latonia this fall. W. O. Parmer and J. W. Russwurm, of Nashville, Tenn., arrived here yesterday evening from Louisville, where they had been in consultation with Colonel J. J. Douglass, the proprietor of the trotting track in that city. Parmer has secured an option on the track, and a meeting will be held at that point. Parmer came here to consult with Manager Fowler and arrange the date of the meeting so as not to clash with Newport."

"The dates for the Newport meeting, however, have not been announced, so Parmer failed to get the desired information. The Executive Committee of the Newport track will meet this morning and settle the date question."

"Parmer's idea is for Newport to take up the running at once and continue until October 26, the date of the opening at Latonia. While the races are going on at the latter track the Turf Congress horses will be running at the Douglass track at Louisville. As soon as Latonia closes the running will be taken up at Newport and continue at least up to December 1, and perhaps all winter."

"This proposition will be made to the executive committee of the Newport track this morning, and more than likely it will be accepted, and the gates will open on next Tuesday or Wednesday."

"Speaking of the proposed scheme, Parmer said: 'I have been at St. Louis and have applications from numerous stables for the proposed meeting at Louisville. The track is in good condition, and all that is necessary is more stable room, and that can easily be arranged.

There are over 1,100 horses at St. Louis, and, as the game winds up there on October 31, some provision must be made for them. I was in hopes that everything would be settled as far as the dates for Newport are concerned, and I expect that they will be tomorrow; at least I am told so. As soon as that point is settled I will be in a position to go ahead with the Louisville project."

"J. W. Russwurm, who succeeded Parmer in the judges' stand at Newport during the long meeting held last summer, said: 'I think that a meeting at Louisville would be a winner, as the public there has never been overdone. Another point to consider, it will give the Turf Congress horses another outlet and will concentrate the strength of the organization in this section. The concentration of a large number of horses and owners is what makes the New Orleans meeting a success.' Mr. Russwurm, who is a man of peace, acknowledged that negotiations have been going on between the warring factions, but the basis of a fair compromise for both has never been reached. It would come, he said, in the near future. Messrs. Parmer and Russwurm returned to Nashville last night."

"For the past two days it has appeared as if there was something on for the Newport track, as Manager Fowler, Joe Rhinock, former Mayor of Covington, and Joe Pugh, Chief of Police of Covington, have held several consultations at the Stag. Just what is doing no one seems to know, but the meeting of the executive committee of the track this morning may shed some light on the subject."

NO DECISION AT ST. LOUIS.

Several affidavits were filed Friday in Division No. 5 of the Circuit Court in the suit of Attorney General E. C. Crow to restrain bookmaking at the Fair Grounds.

One was by Morton Jourdan, who states that he asked State Auditor A. O. Allen for the privilege of issuing half of the licenses to bookmakers, the work to be done in his name by S. C. Rogers and E. N. Robinson, a brother of Owen Robinson, who would receive the compensation. Allen agreed to the proposition, he states. There was no limitation in regard to the issuance of the licenses.

He denies that he stated to Mr. Allen at Springfield, after the licenses were issued August 6, that certain persons induced Rogers to issue the licenses. He met Allen on August 10. He told Allen of the issuance of the licenses, and Allen at first expressed himself as satisfied, Jourdan states. Later in the day Allen told him he was going to inquire into the matter, but said he would protect Jourdan, the latter states.

Allen said, so Jourdan deposes, that if he could he would favor Ed Butler in the matter; that Butler was his friend, and had been kind to Seibert.

Jourdan claims that Rogers and Robinson had authority to issue the licenses. He referred to the affidavit of R. F. Walker, who was also delegated to issue licenses to bookmakers, in which Walker stated he would not delegate his authority to any one. Jourdan says that Walker on one occasion sent Robinson to the racetrack to act for him, and on another occasion called up by telephone and requested that Rogers or Robinson be sent to act in his place. Jourdan denies that he was told by Allen not to issue licenses after August 13.

The depositions of Rogers and Robinson were also filed yesterday. Rogers states that Walker called him up on several occasions by telephone and sent him to the race track to

LESTER REIFF.

Discussing the recent ruling off of Lester Reiff in England, the Spirit of the Times says:

"That there has been something wrong seems certain, but what, is not tangible. Possibly the most pertinent statement is that credited to Charles Doherty, just returned, who says that 'the Keene stable was the only one to receive decent treatment this year.' Wishard, of course, stands by Reiff, who very naturally disclaims everything. Huggins also is quoted as believing that there was nothing wrong about the race. On the other hand, Mr. Corrigan, it is rumored, will not race in England next season, and it is also rumored that there will be several changes in American surroundings in England next year. The London Evening News also says: 'Many English racing men will not accept Mr. Whitney's cabled reasons for retiring from the English turf. They aver that the bad handicapping and loose riding are enough to disgust even a millionaire.' There is undoubtedly something more than appears at present and time will bring it to the surface. In the case of Sloan just as strong evidence was produced and claims made, but the fact remains that Sloan neither applied to the Jockey Club of this country to ride nor made his much talked of pilgrimage to England to demand an investigation. Yet the English Jockey Club was careful not to take any action which should reflect on Sloan in this country if he applied for a license. In the Reiff case they have gone a step further, and it will be interesting to note developments. Reiff was very prominent here a few years ago; he made the highest percentage and number of wins of the year, but after his Californian suspension seemed to fall away. Prominent western turfmen claimed that he was not all to blame in that matter."

"It is worthy of special notice that there is nothing but praise in the English press for Danny Maher, and other American jockeys, and any apparent feeling is only directed against those Americans who, to say the least, have not been prominent in eastern or metropolitan racing circles of late years. This applies broadly to owners, trainers and jockeys."

"The American record of Reiff must be taken into strict consideration, and also the well-known attitude of the English Jockey Club as to even the suspicion of fraud of any type as shown in the ruling off of Charles Archer (brother to Fred Archer) and the suspension of Wood (when he was premier jockey) for five years. Such action taken on English boys in the past, points a strong precedent to the present case of Reiff, and time, which ventilates most things, will probably make all this regrettable tangle more clear than it is at present."

"From latest reports there is likely to be similar trouble in France, where Frenchmen are complaining of Songer, McIntyre (who has been set down), Henry and also Reiff. An American commenting on the situation says: 'If this continues and the American boys are set down a great cry will go up that Frenchmen are jealous of the success of the American riders. The contrary is the case. They have been too lenient. They should have stamped out from the beginning all tendency to crookedness and sharpness. Unfortunately, their own jockeys are so bad that they think it is the usual thing to be swindled from time to time.' This is a rather strong view to take, but not more so than was taken some months ago of one or two American jockeys in England. As stated above, the great bulk of the American boys are in no trouble, are highly thought of and are doing well."

MONTEZUMA'S GOLDEN TIPS!

To Turf Speculators: Winter racing will soon be with us, and if you intend following the game, start on a winning system. Our system pointed to these horses at North October 10—Kentucky Babe, 3-1; Jack Rattlin, 4-1; The Lady, 3-1; Step Onward, 4-1; October 11, Sevo, 6-5; Hermencia, 3-1; Orontas, 1-1; Little Elkin, 8-1—and this is the way it will run all through the winter season. Secure this system, and do your own selecting; play them and you will be a big winner at the end of the season.

Bunco-Broncho Four Year Ago. Same Today. Never Change Name.

With two races destroyed by scratches and one no jockey. Frelinghuysen, two-three, 20-8-3. Merriment, a good bet, special. Barrack, with Winkfield only, one-two, otherwise pass and go to the entry win, special, with Fantasy in the money.

Twenty-four hours in advance of any I ever saw during thirty years, never before saw or knew of a track so quick a non-bottom, no footing—in other words, a complete and thorough soggy track, which Monday only should have produced. I am confident (in fact, will bet $1,000 to $300) that there are six entirely different tracks distinctly between a wet and a fast track, and horses like and dislike, will and will not run on. The dam and grand-dam will never lie.

MONDAY

One of the Best Things sprung in months, odds like Frelinghuysen, 20 or better, and I will guarantee this horse to win. If he does not win I will refund your dollar and also give you a sheet free, same as giving you $2.00 (two dollars)

ATTENTION! And next Thursday another one of my extraordinary specials will start and I shall wire it to all out of town clients, so be on the lookout for it.

ATTENTION! During this meeting I will be personally with my clients daily, and many a winner they will get at post time not on my sheet.

ATTENTION to Out of City Clients—For my 17 uncovered prepared extraordinary specials send your name and address to my office, 176 S. Clark St., and instead of paying me $2.00 bet $1.00 (one dollar) on each wire for me and mail me the winnings of same for each wire.

Winner—Ch. f. by Ranceaux—Dead Clinch.
Went to post at 2:50. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a canter; second easily. Burnie Buntons simply ran away from her field and won as her rider pleased. Gonfalon labored in the going and showed he does not like the mud. Empress of Beauty showed well for a half mile.
Scratched—28683 Money Mus, 114.

Winner—Ch. f. by Handspring—Merry Dance.
Went to post at 3:15. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Merriment, off next to last, moved quickly through her field and got to the front after the first quarter had been run. It was easy sailing after that and she simply romped home. Autumn Leaves finished fast through the last eighth, but had no chance to beat the winner. Inspector Shea tired fast in the last quarter, just lasting long to get third place. Lucien Appleby came with a belated rush at the end. Julia Junkin showed quite a turn of speed for a half mile and then tired badly. Evening Star fell while at the post before the start. It evidently hurt her as she could not extend herself after the first sixteenth had been run.
Overweights—Inspector Shea, 1 pound.
Merriment, show, out. Autumn Leaves, show, 6 to 1. Inspector Shea, show, 4 to 1. Evening Star, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. c. by Dutch Roller—Woodruff.
Went to post at 3:45. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Rolling Boer ran a surprisingly good race and was much the best. He finished resolutely through the last eighth, almost pulling Coburn out of the saddle. The Lady was speedy for a mile and then began to tire. Strangest closed up some ground in the last quarter, but swerved in the last eighth and was spent to the last ounce. He has probably trained off. Charley O'Brien has probably had too much of it of late. He was run into submission by The Lady in the first seven furlongs. Barrack floundered about in the going and was beaten off from start to finish.

Winner—B. c. by Wadsworth—Fredrick.
Went to post at 4:15. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Valdez went to the front after the first half had been run and simply ran away from his field. Fantasy was just as easily the best of the others. Linden Ella ran in improved form and bears watching from now on. The ride on Tammany Chief was a bad one and to make matters worse Hope got him jammed up against the inside rail at the last eighth post. Miss Liza ran well for six furlongs, as did also Frank Ireland.

Winner—Ch. f. by Prophecy—Elite III.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Stella Perkins was at home in the going and ran one of her good races. The result was never in doubt after the first quarter had been run. Step Onward was easily the best of the others. Herodes ran well, but was tiring badly at the end. The others were never serious contenders.

Went to post at 2:10. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. The Bronze Demon is very good in the mud and ran away from the others when called on in the stretch. Lady Bramble showed speed but quit as usual when strongly challenged. Teucer ran a very good race going the outside route all the way. Miss Aubrey is a good mudlark but is in very poor condition being thin and worn. Tenny Belle ran a bad race.

Went to post at 2:40. At post 13 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Sister Sarah is a great filly in mud and was much the best and best ridden. With an even break in luck Concertina would have given her a sharp race. Sting ran a strong race. Lillian M. had no mishaps. Bendora can do better. Potheen should have been closer up. Attelle was probably best, ran a very bad race, indeed, and may not be good in mud. Rose of Red never had a chance from where she got off.

Time, 1:23½, 24½, 48½, 1:14½, 1:26½.
Winner—B. c. by Fonso—Daisy Rose.
Went to post at 2:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second easily. McMeekin trailed leisurely to the stretch and when called on cantered into the lead. He is in great form and is a high-class horse. Belle of Troy, poorly handled and shut off in the stretch, was easily second best and ran a fine race but does not class with the winner. Lady Sterling finished with a tremendous rush and caught Cervera, which had been used up in making the pace, in the last stride.

Scratched—28721 Isia, 117; 28578 Sanders, 115; 28721 Knight of Rhodes, 115; 27440 Malden, 107; 28670 Flora Pomona, 102; 28723 Belle's Commoner, 95.

McMeekin, show, out. Belle of Troy, show, out. Lady Sterling, show, evens.

28775 SECOND RACE—Withers Mile. 3-year-olds. Fillies. The Hunter Handicap. $1,200 added.

Winner—B. f. by Meddler—Sunnyside.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a canter; second driving. Morningsides lost ground at the start and was pressed apparently to get up, which, however, she did when straightened in the stretch. There she went to the front without much effort and won hard held. She far outclassed the field and is in rare form. Lady of the Valley showed a fine burst of speed and stuck to her work gamely and is steadily improving. Templeton ran in vastly improved form at the distance, due to waiting tactics. Candle failed at the end of six furlongs. Sadie S. got off very badly and had no chance with her jockey. Watch her carefully.

Scratched—28740 Princess Pepper, 108.
Overweights—Lady of the Valley, 3 pounds.

Morningside, show, out. Lady of the Valley, show, 1 to 3. Templeton, show, 3 to 5.

28776 THIRD RACE—Eclipse Course. 2-year-olds. The Nursery Handicap. $2,500 added.

Winner—Ch. c. by Hanover—Lady Agnes.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. King Hanover is greatly improved and was lucky and cleverly ridden. Whiskey King broke in the rear and was handicapped by his small jockey, who was unable to do him justice. He was probably best, as he was running on strongly at the end and jumping on the winner's heels. Chilton was carried along so fast that he quit in the last furlong. At that he is a wonderfully improved colt on this track. Tribes Hill and City Bank finished very strongly. Flywheel was hustled off his stride and evidently is best in mud always. Otis is in poor form.

Scratched—28578 Columbian, 90.

The entry, show, evens. Whiskey King, show, 7 to 10. Chilton, show, 3 to 5. Flywheel, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Meddler—Zegri.
Went to post at 3:35. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Zinziber, after trailing for the first two miles, commenced to mow down the field one by one and when finally called on when a half from the finish he ran past the leaders as if they were anchored winning in a canter, and was much the best. He is a great horse at the game. Mystic Shriner put up a fast and game race and is a stayer. Fulminate was a contender throughout. Wood Pigeon lost ground from striking the water jump. Cock Robin and Diver set a terrific pace and both jumped finely. Cock Robin lasted three miles and will win at a short course. Sir Hubert and Charawind ran poorly throughout.

Chamblett entry, show, 7 to 10. Mystic Shriner, show, 6 to 5. Fulminate, show, 2½ to 1.

Winner—Br. g. by Chorister—Rapture.
Went to post at 4:10. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Key-note was easily the best and finished strongly. Tact was badly crossed when a furlong out and came very fast right at the end. Gibson Light was meeked about and weakly handled but was going fast at the finish and caught the tiring Eddie Busch in the last stride. Rockey showed speed but quit. The others are of very moderate caliber.

Winner—Ch. f. by Perblaise—Ondina.
Went to post at 4:35. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Roxane was best and is superior to the others on a speed basis. She finished gamely under a hard drive through the entire stretch. St. Finnan was easily second best. Ethics ran a good race and up to his best form. Himself will win on a sloppy track. Latson was short and wants a longer race anyway.

Scratched—28742 Belle of Troy, 119; 28741 Louisville, 106; 28631 Alard Scheck, 100; 28703 Alpen, 90.

NO DECISION AT ST. LOUIS.

issue licenses. Both Rogers and Robinson state they issued licenses with the knowledge of Allen, and that there were no restrictions.

Walker in his affidavit stated that a few days before August 6 Allen came to him and said he had grave doubts whether he could issue licenses after August 13, and that if he desired any licenses to be issued he would notify him. Allen also said, Walker states, that he would notify Jourdan and his other representative and the attorney for the Delmar association.

Judge Fisher, who presides in courtroom No. 5, has the case under advisement. His court will not be in session today, so no decision can be rendered before next Monday.—St. Louis Republic.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Concerning the sale of Endurance by Right to W. C. Whitney, the New York Sun of Friday said:

"William C. Whitney added the champion filly Endurance by Right, by Inspector B.—Early Morn, yesterday to his already formidable string of two-year-olds. At Morris Park it was announced that John E. Madden purchased the great filly from John W. Schorr of Memphis on Wednesday night and that Madden then sold her yesterday morning to Mr. Whitney for a price that was generally reported to be $35,000. In securing Endurance by Right Mr. Whitney not only purchases her running qualities, but will also send her to his breeding establishment when her career on the track is ended. It was currently reported yesterday that Mr. Madden merely acted for Mr. Whitney in the transaction and that Mr. Schorr received $35,000 for the daughter of Inspector B., but Mr. Madden insisted that two separate sales took place. It is understood that Clarence H. Mackay also had an option on the filly for $30,000 which he waived.

In taking Endurance by Right into his stable, Mr. Whitney has the pick of the two-year-old division, barring, of course, Mr. Mackay's Heno, winner of the Matron Stakes, and L. M. Myers' Leonora Loring, who won the Great Filly Stakes, but was disqualified because of a technical error in her entry. Mr. Whitney now has Nasturtium, for whom he paid $50,000; Yankee, the Futurity winner; Goldsmith, a superb racehorse, who is believed to have a brilliant future; King Hanover, a stake winner; Gold Seeker, a rattling good colt; Blue Girl, winner of many rich stakes, and considered the best filly out, until Endurance by Right demonstrated her marvelous speed and stamina; Pretorius, Metalbert, Gunfire and other crack youngsters. With Endurance by Right added to this list, it can be seen that in the big three-year-old events next year Mr. Whitney will cut a wide swath."

T. H. Stevens has in training at his Walnut Hill farm, under the care of F. E. Driver, the following yearlings. These yearlings are an exceptionally fine lot and can run fast:

Chestnut colt, by Wadsworth—Fonsie (dam of Wyeth, Tom Cromwell), by King Alfonso.

Chestnut colt, by Wadsworth—Modjeska (dam of Merito), by Buckmaster.

Bay colt, by Gov. Foraker—Annie Martin, by Hyder Ali.

Bay colt, by Wadsworth—Clara K., by Hyder Ali.

Bay colt, by Governor Foraker—Fredrica, by Ten Broeck.

Bay colt, by Wadsworth—Wary (dam of Marque), by Warwick.

Brown colt, by Governor Foraker—Clean Heels, by Duke of Montrose.

Brown colt, by Wadsworth—sister to Buckwa, by Buckra.

Brown colt, by St. Florian—Florimore (dam of Seabrooke), by Longfellow.

Bay filly, by Governor Foraker—Queen Bird, by Buckra.
